When are you not available this summer (vacations, work hours, etc...)?

NOTES:

1. Nuns must provide their own footwear (and have it approved).
2. These are all starring roles. None is more important than any other, so you need to be a team player and allow others to be the star when it isn't your turn. This rules out the casting of prima-donnas.
3. I'm giving up a big part of my summer for you; you need to be willing to do the same for me and for the other nuns. Please don't ask for a vacation that isn't listed on this form once you are cast.
4. WARNING: Reverend Mother must be photographed in a humorously tasteful swimsuit. This photo will be displayed on a big screen in front of the audience as part of the script. If you are not willing to do this, don't audition for this role.
5. I will communicate with this cast/crew via e-mail and a web-based Google group. You must have access to these tools and know or be willing to learn how to use them.
